VOLUME 51-NO. 51 LDEST PAPER IN WESTERN KENTUCKY

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1911.

Letter from Syria

Syria, Turkey. April 5th, 1911.

Messrs. Speer & Sexton, Hickman, Ky., U. S. A.

Dear Friends: it has been several weeks since I wrote you last, not because I have forgotten you or your readers, for all of you are thy best friends whom I bink of every day, but because I haven't done any traveling since I wrote last on account of bad weather we have had in this country, and which the older inhabitants say has not happened before in twenty-five years. But now the weather is getding warm and the grass is putting out fast, which makes the country look green and nice. Wish about ten of my Hickman friends could be with us on our great and last trip in Syrwhich begins April 10th. We will start on our journey to and through the land where our Saviour Jesus Christ traveled. Our company will be composed of myself and wife, my mother, Mabel Anisie, and the little baby, and one man to guide who is familiar with every foot of the country. We are going by Jacob's well, Lake Haula, into Tybeira, where we will spend about four days, then into Nazareth, going all over that country until we get to Jerusalem, where we will spend a whole week. I will write you every week about where we go and what we see, and what happens to us, in full. I will give you the name of each town, village, plantation, and what kind of people live in them. That is I will give the details in full of everything we come in contact with. All I ask of you is to give me full space in know you all enjoy such news from snow white ointment

I am afraid we won't know our home town when we reach it from the many buildings and great improvements which are going on daily, such Moss and Mrs. R. The only thing you forgot to mention, and it is of great interest to me, is the news about the farmers. especially the bottom farmers. I hope they have good prospects for fine crops.

I have no news of any importance to tell you about this country now except the farmers are getting their land ready to plant corn, the fruit trees are all in bloom and the people of this town are doing a lot of shopping, getting ready for Easter, which they celebrate more than Americans celebrate Christmas, more especially the children. Their parents buy for them new things out and out, shoes, clothes and caps, few toys, lots of candy and give them some money, so you hear all the children talking about Easter and what they are going to get and wish for it to come soon. This town is composed of Greek Orthodox and Greek Catholics mostly and their is one week difference between them. The Catholic Easter is on April 16 and the Orthodox is on the 23rd. I hope both will enjoy a

A Splendid Showing.

It will surely be of interest to the people of Fulton County to learn of the success in the Hickman schools; a success not only in high enroll ment which was 670 for the month of April, bidding fair to reach 700 be fore the end of the term shall have been reached, but also its graduates have made the finest of records One of the many who have gone out from this school scored at the top honors in Vanderbilt University, another completed the four years course of the State University in three years, tying for the highest honors, also the young orator of this school won the declamatory contest of West Kentucky and Tennessee, bringing the gold medal home. This school, especially the High School, has as good advantages as any school in Westerr Kentucky. For instance, there is our Carnegie Library, through which the students receive the very best literature on all lines.

Hickman High School has certainly been improving the last few years and we trust that it will continue in its good work.

In Memoriam.

Jas. E. Atkins, well known among the older residents of the city, died on April 4th, after an illness of a few days resulting from a general decline.

Mr. Atkins was born in Robertson county, Tenn., Nov. 10, 1830. He came to West Tennessee in 1853 and settled at Hickman, Ky., where he remained until 1867. At Hickman he was engaged in the commission business, and in 1861 enlisted in the Confederacy under General Forrest, serving throughout the four years of

He was taken prisoner while serving with a company of scouts near Memphis, and was a prisoner at Point Tuesday. Lookout, Maryland, at the close of the war.

In 1866 Mr. Atkins and Miss Nannie Wilson were united in marriage and of the union were two children. Alvin Cullom dying at the age of 17 years, and Mrs. Wright Phebus, now a resident of Union City.

Mr. Atkins became a member of the Christian Church in 1870 and was rapher, is here this week. one of the members at the time and assisted in the building of the present church. Mr. Atkins was for the most of his life an active Master Mason and connected with the business and public affairs generally in pendicitis. Union City.

When the cholera broke out in 1873 remained at his post in Union City, assisting in the burial of the victims of the plague and otherwise alleviating their sufferings and distress. He was engaged in merchandising and furnished supplies to the afflicted families. The firm was J. E. Atkins & Co., Judge Lawson being one of ham, at Woodland Mills. the members.

When the cholera subsided Mr. Atkins was unable to continue merchandising on account of the calls made upon him for help, and since then he has lived a retired life in UnionCity.

Mr. Atkins was a man of plain speech but kind and sympathetic nature. He lived in the pioneer days and sustained hardships, but maintained through it all some of the better traits, a heart for his family and friends, sharing in the support of his church and in other public institutions. He leaves a widow, who was his devoted companion all these years and a daughter who will miss him. We extend our condolence.

Services were held at the residence on Wednesday morning, April 5, and the remains interred at East View. The pastor, Rev. Stuart, conducted the service.-Union City Commerciai.

Carnival Coming.

The Davis Amusement Co., a carnival company of about 40 members, will make Hickman a noisy town next week. They will be here one week, beginning Monday the 8th and closing Saturday night the 13th.

The company is now at Martin, Tenn. Their program consists of the usual plantation shows, vaudeville, electric theatre, the Edna show, monkey land, etc. We have never heard of this company before and cannot say anything for or against. The advance agent claims it is one of the best on the road, and that they have a number of people with them who were here last fall with Campbell's United Shows.

Well, let 'er come; a few of our old stiffs haven't smiled since the last one. Get ready.

Arthur Williams, of near Dorena, has lost two children in the past ten days-Clarence, age 9, and Lawrence, age 5. Both died of pneumonia following a spell of measles. Mr. Wiltiams resides on the Hinshaw farm. The oldest child died Saturday and the little fellow died Wednesday.

An Arithmetic Snake. An Englishman had one day told an editor several snake stories which made the newspaper man laugh, and then he said as a wind-up:

"I can't call any more to mind just at present. My wife knows a lot of that they are constantly cramped by the way, though, I've got a regular living curiosity down on my place. One day my eldest boy was sitting on the back step doing his sums, and he couldn't get 'em right. He felt something against his face, and there was a little snake curled up on his shoulder and looking at the slate. In four minutes he had done all those sums. We've tamed him, so he keeps all our accounts, and he is the quickest head at figures you ever saw. He'll run up a column eight feet long !1 three seconds. I wouldn't take a prize cow for him." What kind of a snake is he?"

inquired the editor, curiously. "The neighbors call him an adder."

"The Club." An exclusive dining society is the one bearing the arrogant title "The Club," which since its foundation has been limited to thirty-five members. Johnson, Burke, Reynolds and Goldsmith were among the original members. Garrick and Boswell joined in 1778, and Gibbon and Fox in 1774. Of the eighteen premiers in the nineteenth century nine were members of the club. Fox. Liverpool, Canning, Russell, Aberdeen, Gladstone, Salisbury, Lord Rosebery and Mr. Balfour, -London Chronicle.

Frankfort.-The cornerstone of the splendid new Y. M. C. A. building was laid with the Hon. W. J. Bryan as the orator of the occasion and an attrac tive program interspersed with music and addresses. Mr. Bryan paid his first visit to Frankfort nearly sixteen years ago.

The Frankfort Y. M. C. A. was or ganized in 1895, and Col. Charles E. Hoge was the first president and B. B. Wilcox the first secretary. Last year the present secretary, Stanley A. Don't Believe in Distinction.

Bankers who violate the law will not be permitted to pay the amount of shortage that may be charged against them and then go free of criminal responsibility, declares Dr. Ben L. Bruner, secretary of state, who is in charge of the banks of Kentucky which are incorporated under the state laws. Dr. Bruner says there has been too great an inclination toward immunity from prosecution for the men "higher up" who have been caught stealing, where they pay back the money. He declares that the petit thief is prosecuted and convicted, never being allowed to settle by paying the amount he took. The secretary can not see why any distinction should be made between the poor man who steals and the rich man who embezzles.

What is more to the point, the secretary proposes to see to it that the banker who steals is prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law and not allowed to escape by a cash settlement.

Cramped For Funds.

The members of the board of control say that the state does not provide enough money to care properly for the state insane and feeble-minded and snake stories, but I forget 'em. By lack of funds. The next legislature may be asked to remedy this and increase the allowance for each ward. The board has been working especially hard to make the institute for the feeble-minded more of a success than it has been. # Trust Greed Dominates Tanning Industry

Shoe Wearers Must Pay More for Poorer Leather

How You Can Protect Yourself

The shoe business of this country is absolutely controlled by the Leather Trust.

The Trust owns the tanneries which produce about four-fifths of all the leather in America.

It fixes the price of leather with an eye single to its own profits —which is the one reason for the high price of shoes.

It has recently closed scores of its tanneries for an indefinite period, to create an artificially high price for leather. Worse than that—the Leather Trust is deliberately using its vast #### resources to cheapen its product for the sake of extortionate profits. Most Shoe Makers Cannot Get Honest Leather

Buying his leather from the Trust, the ordinary manufacturer is forced to take an inferior product-hemlock tannage, chemical tannage, or other quick process tannages -everything but straight old-fashioned oak tannage, thoroughly tanned and finished to give it the backbone that leather must have to make a good shoe.

You know what to expect of the average shoes you buy-how good they look at the start and how soon they break down-country that tan, manufacture and sell independent of the Hide Trust, the Leather Trust, the Leather Jobber and the Shoe Jobber.

Now, what can you, John Smith, resident of this town and reader of this paper, do about it?

Endicott, Johnson & Co. is the name of this concern. They buy their hides in the open markets of the world. They have the only complete shoe-manufacturing plant in the world-"from the hide to your foot."

They are the largest shoe manufacturers in the world—thanks to their policy of honest shoes and their saving the shoe wearer four profits in the price.

Endicott, Johnson & Co. started in the shoe business with the fixed idea of service to the wearer. It was the extreme unreliability of Trust-tanned leather that forced them to build their own tanneries.

Leather Tanned for Service

At this writing they are tanning 1750 sides of the finest sole leather every day, 3000 sides of chrome upper leather and 1000 skins of calf leather.

The product of their tanneries is worth Six Million Dollars every year.

Every lot of leather is tanned and finished for a definite type of shoe, to make it durable in the kind of service that will be demanded

In Memoriam.

The Death Angel visited the home of George and Clara Blasengame and took from them their only darling baby, Little Pearl.

She was born Dec. 19, 1908, and died April 11, 1911, age 3 years, 3 months and 23 days.

Little Pearl died of pneumonia Everything that loving hands could do was done, but God saw best to take her to bloom in Paradise. We miss her little feet, sweet voice as she ran and called for mamma and papa. The little golden curls will be seen no more for they are resting in the little white casket. The little voice is forever still. She has gone where there is no parting, no sick ness and death. Papa and mamma weep not for little Pearl, for she has gone home to live with the Angels. Put all your trust in God and it will not be long until we go and meet ber in the bright land, where she is waiting and watching for you.

This lovely bud so young and fair called home by early doom, just came to show how sweet a flower in paradise would bloom. - Grandma.

The sale in Dodds' Addition No 2, exclusively for negroes, was pulled off Monday in good shape. Of the 223 lots, something over 160 were sold. When the remaining lots are disposed of, the Nelson brick house will be given away to some of the lot purchasers and this feature prov ed to be quite a drawing card. Besides this, Mr. Dodds gave one dollar to some church for each lot sold, the church to which it was given being left to the option of the purchaser. #### THE END OF TUBERCULOSIS

The Business of Sitting Out.

By LOUIS HAMMAN, M. D. You must address yourself to the task of sitting outdoors day after day most faithfully. You must make it your constant occupation and stick to it as though you were paid money for it. If you do not get the idea of continuous rest firmly set in your mind you will not succeed. By rest ! mean lying down in a bed or chair in the fresh air. You are not to spend any time in a closed room except when bathing or dressing or eating. Rest all the time. Take no exercise or work until your doctor tells you-no walking, no standing, no rambling, no riding, no driving, no housework, no office work, no chores, no trips, no visits, no knocking about, no odd jobs, no exertion of any kind. Put yourself at rest in the open air after breakfast and stay there. Do not be forever jumping up and doing little things about the house or fetching and carrying. Every morning sit out; every afternoon sit out; every evening after supper sit out or !!e in your outdoor bed.

There will be preaching at Spring Valley Church the first Lord's day in May. All members are asked to be present .- W. L. King.

Congressman Ollie M. James Delivers Opening Address at Nicholasville

LARGE CROWD HEARS ORATOR

Address Was in Interest of His Candidacy For the United States Senatorship in Race Against Senator Paynter.

Nicholasville, Ky.—Congressman Ollie M. James, candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senate against Senator T. H. Paynter, opened his campaign in this city Monday. The largest crowd in the history of Jessamine county was in town to hear the big orator of Western Kentucky. After an introduction by Senator B. M. Arnett, Mr. James spoke as follows:

Senator Paynter states that he did not undertake to take any action relative to influencing members of the State Executive Committee about calling a primary or taking any action relative to selecting nominees for the United States Senate. He says be thought any action they should take would be with a view of conserving the best interests of the party. As to whether he undertook any action or not, it is a fact well known to the people of Kentucky that every close personal friend of his, together with the Democrats from the district in which he lives or did live, voted arminet including the production of the productio against including the race in the primary, and after a primary had been ordered for all State officers the Uni ted States Senatorship was excluded from the primary in direct violation of Democratic doctrine and platform promises for almost a quarter of a

The Senator still sat silent as be says, I presume still believing, "that any action taken would be with a view to conserving the best interests of his party." And, yet, he must have known, and I charge that he did know, that such action as this was reactionary and undemocratic and was stabbing Democratic hopes to the very heart. And, yet, he remained silent, still believing, as he tells us, that the action the committee should take would be to best "conserve the interests of the party." Senator Paynter has never favored a primary election, and to-day is dragged unwillingly before the proud electorate of the Commonwealth to submit his claims for their confidence and approval and his candidacy to their arbitrament. Senator Paynter was not the choice of the people of Kentucky when he was elected to the Senate; he is not the choice of the people of Kentucky now. I believe l am well within the bounds of reason and truth when I say that Senator Paynter could not have polled, when was elected to the Senate, more than one vote out of five in Kentucky against Senator Blackburn.

But the Senator Blackburn.

But the Senator Blackburn.

But the Senator dodges the proposition when he states it is unnecessary to state what his preference was as to the nomination of the candidates for state officers and the United States Senate. Senator, I am no mind reader, but I know your preference as the people of Kentucky know what it is. There was a time when it was necessary for you to act. When Democratic platforms were being trampled upon and Democratic issues were imperfilled you remained silent.

I was told quite frequently at Louisville, when the committee met the time before the last, that the primary call was not in proper form and that it must be absolutely legally drawn because Senator Paynter intended to institute a suit in the courts enjoining the holding of the senatorial primary; that it would not be done by him openly, but by some other person who really would be acting in his interest and that it would be said, of course, that Senator Paynter knew nothing about it; that a primary was entirely satisfactory to him.

My Record.

Senator Paynter says in his card of announcement that I am a member of a Never Had a Senator. The First congressional district of Kentucky is the Gibraltar Democratic district of our state. It furnishes 10,000 to 15,000 time of battle, and yet this great district has never been honored in all the history of the Democratic party for more than a hundred years with the selection of one of her sons as the nominee of the Democratic party. The district in which Senator Paynter now lives has furnished a United States senator from Kentucky for three-fourths of the time since Kentucky was admitted into the Union. And I submit to a fair democracy that it is only just that the Gibraltar democratic district of the state should for one time in more than a century be given the nomination as the standard-bearer of the Democratic party for the United States senatorship. We have given you our votes in all the struggles for all these years without complaint. We submit to the fairmindedness of the people of the whole state that this request is more than reasonable. It is true I am a member of the great committee upon Ways and Means, the first Democrat to hold the place from Kentucky since the days of Carlisle, of Beck, of Breckenridge and of Montgomery, fourth my way to the front bearing the stainless banner of the people's rights. If I have endeared myself to my colleagues, it was because I was a Democrat and a lover of the rights of men, a believer in justice to all humanity, and that I bore no whitewash brushes nor flag of truce to the Republican party.

Appreciates Paynter's Compliment.

Appreciates Paynter's Compliment. Appreciates Paynter's Compliment.

While I appreciate greatly the high compliment my unwilling opponent pays me in saying that I ought to be kept in the house, that the people can not spare me from that forum, I can not say for him that he ought to be kept in the senate. The senate to-day is the one rock against which the sigh of the people for relief breaks. It is the last stand of plutocracy; it is the rendezvous of the vested interests; it is the lair of corporate greed. The people of Kentucky need one who will fight for them, one who is their friend and unafraid.

ists in the senate, with the vested interests writing these outrageous schedules of taxation into this law, the Senator never opened his mouth in opposition to the oppressive schedules which effect the things most needed in the homes of our people. The farmer was being taxed, the laborer was being taxed, the mechanic, the business man, and yet the Senator with weeks and months of time at his disposal during this discussion never rose to point out to the senate and to the country these wrongs that were being attempted upon the American prople upon the things most needed by them. But not so when Lorimer, the "blond boss" from Chicago, the Republican millionaire, the man who voted for the force bill to reduce southern representation, to place back upon the white precise. voted for the force bill to reduce south-ern representation, to place back upon the white people of the South the black rule of negro domination, and who voted to unseat Democrats, who were elected by the voice of the people from south-ern states. Lorimer's Speeches in Kentucky.

The speeches of Senator Lorimer are today being circulated through Kentucky in every county in it, speeches paid for by Lorimer, speeches circulated under the frank of Lorimer at government expense, sent out by Lorimer for the purpose of aiding Senator Paynter, and I am informed and charge it to be true that the State of "Kentucky" was printed upon the envelopes that enclosed these speeches, and the mailing list used in sending them out was one furnished by Senator Paynter. This is Lorimerism attempted here in Kentucky attempting to influence the selection of a United States senator in a Democratic primary, using the United States mails for the purpose, and yet this, we may be told, is some of that unseen influence, so far as benator Paynter is concerned, that was used to elect Lorimer. That men were bribed in Springfield, Illinois, no man denies, and yet Senator Paynter and his fellows would have us believe that they were bribed by some unknown and unseen hand without the knowledge er consent of Lorimer. A man might bribe actuated by ambition, but he who bribes for another's benefit, usually gets some return. And yet the most dangerous torce that threatens the American people today is bribery of that very sort. Of course, I do not believe that this bribery occurred without Lorimer's knowledge or consent, and I hesitate to think that Senator Paynter believes it; because I am constrained to think that II he believed it, he would have called for Lorimer to take the stand and lift his hand and be sworn and say whether or not he had any knowledge of this bribery.

Lorimer Not Sworn as a Witness.

Lorimer Not Sworn as a Witness. Lorimer Not Sworn as a Witness. But notwithstanding the fact that Lorimer was there at Springfield, during the time this bribery occurred, notwithstanding he was rooming and in constant communication with the men who were accused of having committed the bribery, he was not called. Yet when the honor of the sanate, the honor of the United States was at stake, when the very honor of Senator Paynter himself was at stake, when the honor of Lorimer was at issue, Senator Paynter never once asked the accused Senator from Illinois, William Lorimer, to take the stand and lift his hand to be sworn to tell the truth, the whole truth relative to his connections. the whole truth relative to his connection with this affair. Why was he as placed on the witness stand? Senate Paynter states that he resigned from the Ballinger committee because he was side and had not an opportunity to cross-examine Mr. Ballinger. Senator Paynte was sick for two days, the Ballinger is vestigating committee was in session for amine Mr. Ballinger. Senator Paynter was sick for two days, the Ballinger investigating committee was in session for five months. Ballinger was upon the stand for eight days; he could have been recalled at any time, as Senator Paynter well knew, for the purpose of asking him any question he desired. And yet the Senator resigned from the committee because he could not cross-examine him. The Ballinger case did not affect the honor of the senate, it affected the property of the people. It did not affect the honor of Senator Paynter as a member of the senate, it affected the great natural resources of the people. After resigning from the committee because he did not have an opportunity to cross-examine Ballinger, as he said, he sits for weeks and mouths upon the Lorimer case with the whole Republic ringing with charges of bribery against him and never once said to him. "Lorimer, you must be sworn. The honor of your country is at stake, my honor is at stake, your honor is a stake. Teil us, did you know of this bribery?" But Senator Paynter made his report smearing Lorimer with white wash and saying that he boarded at the Young Men's Christian Association building and was alright.

Was Lorimer Afraid?

Was Lorimer Afraid?

Was Lorimer Afraid?

Why did not Lorimer take the stand?

Was it because when he sworn he would be subject to prosecution for perjury or false swearing, if he swore falsely? Was it because Lorimer did not know how many more conscience stricken men would come forward and implicate him as these four or seven men had done, fearing the criminal courts of the land. He sought to be excused from testifying as to the integrity of his own election, the purity of his own election, the purity of his own action, the honor of his own state.

Democrats of the Senate Repudiate Paynter's Report.

Paynter's Report.

Senaior Paynter asks the people of Kentucky to endorse his action here, as a member of the Senate. A strange request this is when the Senator himself commissioned by his colleagues in the senate claimed to them to have heard all the testimony and to have rendered a just and righteous verdict. These men dug deep into the facts, they delved far into the record, they read it all, they heard it all and they would not do what Senator Paynter asks the people of Kentucky to de, that is, endorse his record. But instead, his Democratic colleagues in spite of the comradeship and amity that exists between members of that body, in spite of the appeals reade by two to one his own Democratic fellows in the senate disapproved his record and said that Lorimer ought to be driven from the senate.

Let us call the roll and see who stood by Senator Paynter for Lorimer. (Mr. James then read and commented upon the roll call of the senate.) I was in that chamber when the vote was taken and saw it all. I saw Senator Paynter sitting in the seat occupied by Beck, by Clay, men who lived and died poor, men who had no tolerance of filmsy technicalities of the law when they were used as barriers to protect corruption. I saw Senator Paynter leading his fight; beside him were beyow and Guggenheim, of Colorado, and the stand pat crowd.

Official Records.

Official Records.

The people are interested in the official record of their public servants, and such a record is a legitimate subject of discussion, analysis and inspection, and exercising this right, I desire to call to the attention of the people of Kentucky the record of Senator Thomas H. Paynter, I believe this record discloses that he does not represent the democracy of the state that he is retrogressive, not progressive, that he is tainted with protectionism.

Paymer's Vote on Iron Ore.

He voted on May 13, 1909, for a tax of ten per cent ad valorem upon iron ore. The protection Republicans in the house, headed by Sereno E. Payne and John Dalzeil, believing as they did that they had a right to enrich men by law at the expense of all the rest, did not have the effrontery to place a tax upon this article. And in the bill passed by the House framed by these gentlemen iron ore was made free; but when it got to the senate, this material, which goes into the manufacture of every wagon, harrow, plow, stove, farming implement, kitchen utensile is taxed 10 per cent ad valorem, and Senator Paynter cast his vote for this increased duty, a protective duty pure and simple, a duty which added 10 per cent to the wealth of the Steel trust which owns practically all the iron ore in the United States, and made impossible free iron ore from Cuba, Canada and other countries, for the use of independent manufacturers of steel and iron who might compete with the Steel Trust, and increased the price of every article to the extent of 10 per cent which the consumers, farmers, mechanics and householders have to pay. This vote is indefensible and inexcusable in my judgment, and if I had been in the senate I would have represented the people who consume the articles made from iron ore and would not have voted for the trust which manufactures iron and steel, and owns the iron ore beds in this country.

His Pair With Guggenheim. Paymter's Vote on Iron Ore.

His Pair With Guggenhelm. His Pair With Guggenhelm.

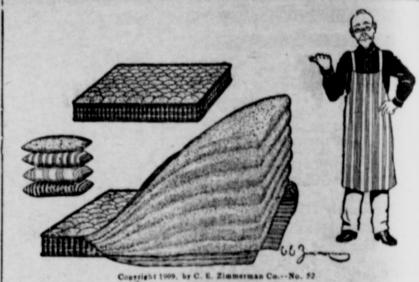

Senator Paynter, according to the Congressional Record, had a general pair with Senator Simon Guggenhelm, of Colorado. But I find from the record of the votes upon the tariff bill that Guggenhelm voted when he pleased and Senator Paynter when absent was without a pair if Guggenhelm pleased to vote, but the Record shows no complaint upon Paynter's part—when he allowed the near three millions of Kentuckians to go unrepresented, even by a pair vote.

His Vote on Lead Ore

His Vote on Lead Ore. His Vote on Lead Ore.

On May 7, 1999, an amendment was offered by Aldrich by which the duty upon lead and lead bearing ore of all kinds was placed at 1½ cents per pound, which is equal to $30 per ton. Guggenheim, Senator Paynter's pair, voted and Senator Paynter was recorded as not voting, and he was without a pair. Did Senator Paynter authorize Guggenheim to vote upon questions like lead ore and zinc ore, and other things out of which his (Guggenheim's) fortune is made and upon which he wanted to levy a tax upon his (Guggenheim's) fortune is made and upon which he wanted to levy a tax upon the American people? If not, why did Senator Paynter not repudiate in the open senate Guggenheim who was paired with him and in violation of the pair voted while he was absent, if he was paired with him, and did violate the pair, or did Paynter allow the confiding people of Kentucky to go unrepresented—even by a pair?

Hie Vote Upon Scrap and Pig Iron. On June 25, 1909, an amendment was offered striking out the tariff try of $2.50 a ton on wrought and east scrap iron and scrap steel, which, as stated by Senator Burkett in the debate, is the same as pig iron and an identical term. Senator Paynter again was recorded as not voting, and his regular pair, Senator Guggenham, was recorded as voting ment, of course, would have affected the profits that have made Mr. Guggenheim a millionaire, and he is not to be blamed (if the personal interest of a public official is allowed to control above his oath and his public duty) for voting to enrich himself at the expense of the consuming public. But the inquiry I desire to make is where was Senator Paynter and why did he not vote for this amendment. With whom was he paired? There is none announced for him.

Paynter's Vote on Cash Registers.

On June 26, 1909, an amendment was offered reducing the duty from 30 per cent to 15 per cent upon cash registers.

Senator Paynter again was absent and not voting, and Mr. Guggenheim rose in his place and used the following language: "I have a pair with the senior senator from Kentucky, Mr. Paynter. I transfer that pair to the senator from Delaware, Mr. Dupont, and vote. I vote no." So, it would appear from this that when Guggenheim desired he paid utterly no attention to the pair and he transferred it to some absent millionaire like Dupont and then cast his own vote. In congressional and senatorial parlance, Guggenheim transferred Senator Paynter to a dead pair, but I have examined the Congressional Record and find no complaint made by Senator Paynter of being transferred about by Guggenheim to Dupont as the exigencies of the occasion might require. Paynter's Vote on Cash Registers.

Free Lumber.

Free Lumber.

On June 26, 1909, when the question came up on free lumber, Senator Paynter was absent and not voting and Guggenheim on this vote announced a pair, but did not transfer it and nowhere stated how he would have voted if Senator Paynter had been present. It might have been that Guggenheim would have voted for free lumber, at least i*know of no state that needs free lumber worse than Colorado. Mr. Gugenheim may tell his people that he would have voted for free lumber, at least he did not have the courage to say he would have voted against it, and that Senator Paynter would have voted against free lumber. The Record does not disclose. Free lumber was a platform promise made by the Democratic party in national convention at Denver in 1908. Senator Paynter was a delegate there and did not oppose it—he was in honor bound to support it—yet he did not vote.

Paynter's Vote on Wire Mails, Barbed

Wire, Etc.

On June 28, 1999, an amendment was offered reducing the traiff upon Iron in pigs, upon round iron and steel wire, upon barbed wire and wire nails made of iron or steel; and again Senator Poynter was absent and his regular pair, Mr. Guggenheim, voted. Of course, Guggenheim was interested in taxing the people of Kentucky upon all those things that are used by all our citizens and which go to make his pockets bulge. He announced no pair with Senator Paynter and I find no complaint upon the part of Setnator Paynter about his failure to do so, therefore Kentucky was disfranchased upon this important vote.

Paynter's Vote on School Books.

The blind senstor, Gore, or Oklahoma, effered an amendment placing school books to be used in the public schools of any state, territory or municipality of the United States upon the free list. This would have affed the seventeen million families in the United States in securing cheaper school books for their children. Senator Paynter was again absent and not voting and unpaired, but Guggenheim, his theretofore regular pair, voted no against this amendment. Kentucky again had no voice to speak for her.

Paynter's Vote on Salt.

Benator Bacon offered an amendment placing salt on the free list and argued with eloquence and power that it is one of the necessities of life that should be untaxed, that it was beencessite dootrine of a hundred years' standing that this great necessity and preservative should be made free to the people from tariff burdens. Senstor Paynter again was absent and not voting and unpaired, but duggenheim cast his vote no, and thus voted to keep the tax even upon salt that goes into the people's bread. So, again, Paynter was absent and the cattle upon Kentucky's thousand hills were 'lowing out 'Where was Paynter?'

Paynter on the Income Tax Question.

When the question came up of the income tax amendment, en July 5, 1909, an amendment was offered that this income tax question should be submitted to conventions called in the states for that purpose, and not to the state legislatures. This would have given the people an opportunity to send men to the convention upon the direct question of the income tax. All friends of the income tax were in favor of this amendment. Senator Paynter was again absent, but his regular pair, Guggenhelm, transferred him upon this vote to Senator Piles, of Washington, who was absent somewhere, and Guggenhelm voted no upon this question. Again Senator Paynter was transferred by his colleague, Guggenhelm, to a dead pair, but doubtless he had gotten used to it by this time and no complaint was ever made.

Paynter's Voting Percentage.

Paynter's Voting Percentage. I find that out of a total number of votes upon the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill of 12 roil calls, Senator Paynter voted 78 times and was absent 47 times. His record of not voting was 38.5 per cent, in other words, Kentucky was not represented or misrepresented at least more than a third of the time.

My record as a member of Congress is familiar to the people of Kentucky. I am proud of it, proud of it because it is Democratic, because it is upon the people's side, because it keeps sacred Democratic platform promises. And what a contrast Kentucky presented in the two great investigations that were conducted in the last year; one, the investigation of the Lorimer case, in which Senator Paynter appeared as the chief, defender of this gentleman, the other the case of Richard the Lorimer case, in which Senator Paynter appeared as the chief, defender of this gentleman, the other the case of Richard A. Ballinger, a member of the President's cabinet. I was on this committee and did not resign from it as Senator Paynter did. I stayed at my post and worked for months. I knew that millions and billions of dollars of the people's property was at stake; I knew that Alaska, the great storehouse left to the American people, had at its very throat the Guugenheim-Morgan syndicate; I worked there with my colleagues, and what was the result? We drove out of the President's cabinet an unfaithful public servant. The Republicans would not have selected me on the committee. I was elected me on the committee. I was elected me was placed in nomination by Champ Clark. The Republicans would have selected men who love whitewash rather than light. My record on that committee is one in which I take pride. It takes courage to stand out and fight for the people's rights, unearth wrong, uncover greed, and strip from corruption its mask. To do this it requires a genuine Democrat, one who would rather represent the people than to sit in the benign sunshine of the smiles of the powers that be.

The Amendment Senator Paynter

The Amendment Senator Paynter Offered.

The Amendment Senator Paynter
Offered.

Senator Paynter tells us in his card of announcement that he introduced in the Senate an amendment, which never passed, in which he sought to nave the government to furnish official information as to the amount of agricultural products in the hands of the manufacturers, with a view of enabling the farmiers to know what would be the necessary demand of the manufacturers for the crops in the hands of the producers. Yet the Senator neglected to say, and being quite generous myself I will presume he forgot it, that the amendment be offered had been previously drafted by Hon. Campbell Cantrill and passed in the Democraic caucus in the House, where I aided Mr. Cantrill myself in securing its adoption. I merely give this information in the interest of historical accuracy. The Senator also tells us that he introduced an amendment to the railroad rate bill, and he would leave the casual reader under the impression doubtless that it did not become a law and is not now the law. I do not know who was the author of this.

He tells us that he supported an amendment taking the tax off of tobacco. This is true. It was the same amendment for which I had been fighting for years. It was not included in the Payne tariff bill when reported to the House, and when it went to the Senate Senator Paynter spoke for it, and the longer he spoke the more certain its defeat became apparent, and it was finally so amended as to allow the farmer to sell his tobacco in the leaf in lots of two-pound packages, which was not the amendment passed in the House nor one calculated to give much relief to the People. I can say to the tobacco, and those to whom he sells the right to resell it in the leaf without any requirements as to internal revenue or without any governmental limitations whatever, will receive my most vigorous support.

Paynter's Vote on Cotton Ties.

Senator Culberson, of Texas, offered an amendment on June 28, 1800, placing hoop or band fron for balling cotton or other commodities upon the free list. This would have asided the farmers of the South to buy in an open unaxed market those things used in preparing their products and prepared them to have bound their products and prepared them for shipment, which they are forced to sell in the open markets of the world without a protective tariff benefit. Senator Paynter again was absent and not voting and unpaired. But his regular pair, Mr. Guggenheim, was on the Job and voted against the amendment.

The Judiciary Committee.

The Senator tells us that he is upon the Judiciary Committee of the Senate and that he believes it is a committee of as high rank as any committee in the Senate. Surely the Senator does not expect the people of Kentucky to share this belief, for the Judiciary Committee does not bandle appropriation bills nor bills affecting the revenue or naval affairs, or military affairs, nor matters relative to Interstate commerce, nor hatters relative to Interstate commerce, nor hatters relative to post offices and post roads, nor matters relative to the rules, and certainly the Senator knows that the Finance Committee, the Appropriations Committee, the Committee on Naval Affairs, the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads, seven committees in all, are of higher rank than the Committee on Judiciary I have taken some pains to examine the committee assignments of Democratic senators who entered the Senate at the same time Senator Paynter to deny it that he can not point out a single Democratic senator who entered official service at the same time he did who has not equally as good or better assignments than he has.

Would Represent All the People.

Would Represent All the People.

As the Senator from Kentucky I would represent the whole people. I would always attempt to reflect their will, I would be conscious of the fact that I was casting their vote, not mine. It would be their will, not my own desire, that would actuate me and control my conduct. If the time should ever come that I could not cast their vote according to their known wishes. I would not assume and pretend a false courage by saying that I would not cast their vote, otherwise, than as I desired, "If every man, woman and child in my beloved state should petition me to do otherwise." But I would be brave enough to tender back to the people the office they gave me and let them elect some one who would represent them truly and cast their vote as they desired.

Upon all those questions where you have not expressed your will I would use my votce and vote for your highest and best interests as God gave me the light to see it, and upon those questions where you had expressed your will, I would carry out your instructions to the letter, or resign my sent in the Senate.

My Views of a Protective Tariff. Would Represent All the People.

My Views of a Protective Tariff.

Since I have been a member of Congres I have never missed an opportunity to vote to reduce the tariff, to lessen the tax upon the people who consume those things that are necessary to their existence. Upon every vote when the Payne tariff bill was under consideration I voted to lower its outrageous duties I believe a tariff is a tax and that it is paid by the consumer, and that the only excuse for its existence is to raise revenue to run the government, and for that alone. It was never thought of or even dreamed of when this Republic was created that the taxing power would be used to enrich some at the expense of all, or to enrich any at the expense of the rest And no tariff tax should be levied except for the sole and single purpose to raise revenue enough to run the government in economy and honesty. But the mighty combinations that everywhere tower above us and oppress the people, the trusts and monopolies upon everything, are the direct result of a tariff for My Views of a Protective Tariff.

protection, which is but another way of taking money out of the pockets of all the people through the forms of law to make the pockets of other people buige and their fortunes grow into the millions. The more I see of this indefensible robbery under the forms of law called protective tariff, the more willing I am to concede the exceeding wisdom of Alexander Hamilton, who more than a hundred years ago declared that you could tax the coat off of a man's back if you did it indirectly and he would not complain. The wrong of the tariff does not stop when it takes from the pockets of all the people to enrich the few, but it lads to extravagance, to recklessness in the expenditure of the people's money.

My Attitude on the income Tax

My Attitude on the Income Tax

Question.

I have always believed in an income tax, because it is a just way to distribute the burdens of the government. Those who are most prospered by a government ought to be willing to pay the most to maintain it. It was a tax that was good enough for the fathers who framed the government, good enough for those who made it great, good enough for Abraham Lincoln with which to maintain the war between the States. In fact, it is a law which came from Heaven, for the Master announced it better than any mortal ever has when he called for a tithe of the earnings of all to maintain the church, to succor the widow and orphan. Question.

How I Stand on the Direct Election of United States Senators.

I am in favor of the election of sena-ors by the direct vote of the people, for in the language of the Democratic na-ional platform its gateway for all other eforms and without which all other eforms are impossible.

Railroad Rate Regulation.

Pure Food Legislation,

I supported the pure food legislation and believe it was one of the best laws Congress has ever passed, because it leaded the right of the trusts and monopolies to make their fortunes at the ex-pense of the health of the people of the United States. My Efforts in Behalf of the Tobacco

Farmer. Farmer.

I have battled for the farmers for eight long years in Congress. I have sought to free them from the clutches of the trusts, and in order to do this I advocated taking the tax off of their tobacco in the hand that the consuming public might become competitors with the sole purchasers of the farmer's product, vtz.: the tobacco trust. In Congress, upon the stump, everywhere, I have been the champion of their cause without apology or excuse.

Publication of Campaign Contributions. section so that the ballot holder might know, when he went to the polls, what forces were back of the candidates for whom he was expected to vote.

Corporal Punishment for Violators of the Law.

I stood upon the floor of Congress and advocated writing into the railroad bill a penitentiary penalty for those who violate the law. It was voted down in the House, but was finally written into the law in the Senate, and it's the one provision that President Taft says gives efficacy and strength to the law.

I have stood for the sconomical expenditure of the people's money, recognizing ture of the people's money, recognizing that it is the duty of the public servant to protect their money as he would his own, to expend it in the same manner.

The Platform a Lien Upon Honor.

I stand squarely upon the National Democratic platform adopted by our party in 190. I consider our promises made to the people in this platform as a lien upon our honor and good faith. With me a platform is truly a contract with the people, and he who violates it is guilty of bad faith to a greater degree than one who violates a public contract, for one who wiolates a public contract betrays all the people, while is a private contract his betrayal is not so great. The one would affect the private fortune of a very few, the other affects the government of all. For the breach of a private contract the person wronged has a remedy at law, for the betrayal of a public promise no remedy is now obtainable. The Platform a Lien Upon Honor. In the Beginning I Chose the People's Bide. Fellow citizens, I have no doubt that in Fellow citizens, I have no doubt that in this race every corporate and vested interest will try to encompass my defeat. I have been told by many that hundreds of thousands of dollars will be poured into Kentucky to defeat me. Why is this? It is because I have been upon your side in this fight; when you were at home and asleep I have been fighting your battles and trying to beat back your assallants, trying to make this your government in reality as well as in name. I have been trying to make laws for you that would visit upon all men who stand beneath the ample folds of the Republic's flag its blessings and distribute its burdens upon the shoulders of all men alike. I recognized when I went into public life that there was an easy way and there was a hard way; that by one way you could have the people upon your side. I recognized when I went into public life that there was an easy way and there was a hard way; that by one way you could have the people upon your side, that they were unorganized, it was hard to arouse them—but when informed, they were just, and when thus enlightened they always do right, for their votes, like the voice of God. Is always true. Yet upon the other side, you would have the organized few, the coporate interests, the always alert system, no work required to arouse them, no speaking to enlighten them, but like a ferret always at work. But I chose the people's side. I have been there, and if I go down in defeat in this contest I will have the satisfaction of knowing that, with conscience clear and hands clean, I can lay off the official togas spotless as a star and as clean as the snow that reets upon the peaks of the Himalayas. My appeal is to you, my friends. This is your government. Here you were born and your children were born. Here they must live, and they are entitled, you are entitled to just as good a government as any other people in the world; but you have got to make your voice heard, you have got to teach a lesson to the public servant, and make him vote on your side, or you will not vote upon his side.

Have Fought Democratic Battles For

Have Fought Democratic Battles For Twenty Years,

Twenty Years.

Fellow citizens, my record as an alert, fighting Democrat is known to all this Commonwealth. For almost twenty years wherever the battle has raged, I have been found fighting for democracy. In every congressional district in Kentucky, in almost every county in Kentucky during all these years I have given my services to the democracy. Senator Paynter has not been heard upon the stump two dozen times in twenty years; he has been sitting back in a lucrative position far removed from the battle line of democracy. For all these years he has enjoyed this quietude and emoluments of these offices while I have been out battling for you. The Senator enjoyed these things until he saw a chance to get six years instead of five he already had and immediately became a candidate. I submit to the democracy of this state my candidacy, conscious that as they are just, they will do righteousness.

In Conclusion.

Owing to the extraordinary session of Congress, which is now being held, it will be impossible for me to go into all of the counties in Kentucky or a very great number of them and present personally my cause. I deem it my duty to stay at the post where the people have sent me, struggling to lighten their burdens and to remedy their wrongs. And I feel and hope that the Democrats of the state will see to it that my candidacy does not suffer by reason of my loyalty to them, for in the days gone by I have been with them, fought with them and fought for them.

When he said he would make any sacrifice for his country, even giving his NS if Recessary, but that the government must be considered, his right hand was elenched and he smote the arm of the armchair. As he spoke his strong face showed deep emotion. His buildes jaw was tense, his eyes bright and steady, with fight in them, his voice ringing, defiant and intense. He had been warned it was not politic to answer the questions, but the old general could not resist his wish to Diplomacy an Accident.

That his answer was diplomatic apparently was accidental rather than ntentional. Put in one word it might have been "war." The tone was not one of peace. No one looking into that face could have seen any thought of resignation under pressure.

The truth is, Precident Diaz believes his resignation at this time would throw Mexico into a state bordering on anarchy. He believes it would mean the overthrow of the constitutional government and the worst thing possible for the country. His declarstion that he would upheld the government was pure patriotism, not personal ambition to retain office Ris intense egotism and self-reliance are the result of a third of a century of absolute rule.

Dias can see no hope for the country save himself. Could be believe another man in the republic is as strong and capable as himself, no doubt he would gladly resign in his favor. Contempt for Madero.

If a really great man had been nominated at the last election instead of Madero, Dias would not have run, but be has contempt for Madero's qualifcations to be president. He declares the brainest men in Mexico are not true patriote, and those most patriatic are not brainy enough; hence his buildes tenacity in holding the presi-That he will resign now is hardly conceivable.

Teachers Elected.

The Hickman Board of Education met Friday night and elected teachers for Hickman's public schools for the school years 1911-12. There were about a half-dozen more applicants than there were places to fill, and the following were elected:

Prof. B. F. Gabby, principal. Miss Inez Luten.

Miss Annie Sharron

Miss Mattle DeBow.

Miss Feustina Wingo Miss Mattie May Seay.

Miss Imogene Moore.

Mrs. Avee Journey.

Miss Lite Faris. Miss Bufie Bruer

Miss Mildred Ramage.

In the music department, Miss Marguerite Fuqua was chasen, and Miss Louise Atwood was again elected librarian. There were three applications for the music department.

This is a very capable lot of instructors, and Hickman's school reputation will doubtless be kept up to stops when the time is out-no exthe usual high standard.

J. K. Postma, the florist, is endeavoring to place $5,000 stock in a Hickman greenhouse, which is to be built in the Industrial League Addition. The total stock of the concern it to be $12,000, of which Mr. Postma takes $5,000 and the League $2,000

Mr. Postma runs a greenhouse in Union City, and has also put in a branch of the business in Hickman, located on the Stahr farm, but the Hickman business at present is merely a potted plant affair. The experiment, however, has satisfied the florist that Hickman will support a greenhouse. When one considers the amount spent for flowers, it is reasonable to suppose the business would pay here. KEN FAVORABLE ACTION ON PROPOSED MEASURE.

HOW AMENDMENT STANDS

Bix More States Must Take Affirmative Legislation in Order to Make the Amendment Effective.

New York, May 2.-Twenty-nine states, according to reports received, have ratified the proposed income tax amendment to the federal constitution. Before the amendment can become a law it must be approved by six more states, making the number 35, or twothirds of the whole number.

Arkansas and Tennessee were the only states that ratified in April. Thus far the proposal has been approved by both legislative houses in the following states: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Kentucky, Kansas, Maryland, Maine, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, North Daketa, Ohio, Oregon, Oklahoma, South Dakota, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Washington.

The amendment is pending before the legislatures of nine states, still in session. These are:

Connecticut-Committee reported adversely; no action by either house. Delaware- No action.

Florida-Passed the house; pending in the senate. Massachusetts-Passed the house; ne action by senate. New York-Passed the senate; pending in the house. Pennsylvania-Committee reported favorably; no action yet by either

Rhode Island-Defeated in 1919. No action this year. Virginia-Passed the senate; defeated in the house. Wisconsin-Passed house; pending in the senate. Seven state legislatures have adjourned so far this year, refusing to ratify the amendment in one or both branches. These were: Louisiana, Minnesota New Hampshire, New Jersey, Utah, West Virginia and Wyoming.

The Vermont legislature defeated the amendment in 1910 and does not meet again until 1912.

> Little Willie, having only one eye, did not like to attend school, says Mack's National Monthly. One afternoon he stayed home, and his mother sent him to the store for a loaf of bread. On the way back he stopped at the school. The examiners were there to award a prize of five dollars in gold tiara, or three-crowned hat-Vicarius to the smartest boy or girl in the class. Dei Filii. Just as Willie entered the teacher held up one finger. Then Willie held up two fingers. This time she held up three fingers, and Willie held up his fist. She held up an apple, and Willie held up the loaf of bread. She called him to the desk and gave him the five dollars.

The examiners inquired of the teacher why she had awarded the prize to Willie. She replied:

"I held up one finger, meaning there is one Supreme Being. He held up two, meaning the starting of the race, Adam and Eve. I held up three fingers, meaning Faith, Hope and Charity He held up his fist, meaning in unity there is strength. I held up an apple, meaning the downfall of man. He held up the bread, meaning the staff of life. Then I give him the prize."

MORE DEAD FLIES IN THE PRECIOUS OINTMENT.

Pastor Russell Points Out More Deceptive Additions to the Word of God Centained In Our Common Version Bibles, but Shown to Be False Because Not Found in the Oldest Greek MSS .- One of These "Flies" Has Moulded Accepted Theology-Dead Flies Cause the Apothecary's Ointment to Stink.-Ecclesiastes 10:1.

Not long ago I pointed out that the last twelve verses of St. Mark's Gospel, in our Common Version, are spurious so recognized by all scholars, because these verses are not to be found in any of the oldest Greek evidently added to the Word of God in the Seventh Century Moreover, we gave proofs of the untruthfulness of this addition. Is it true that whoever believes the Gospel of Christ may handle serpents with impunity and may drink deadly poison without harm? Surely not. It is nothing short of a sin for those who know better to acknowledge these verses and to use them to boister up theories of Divine Healing. It is as much a crime to add to the Word of God as to take away from it.

Today I invite attention to some oth er "dead flies," some other additions to God's Word, which have had much to do with twisting the theology once delivered to the saints. Take, for instance, the closing words of the Lord's Prayer:-

"Thine Is the Kingdom and Power and Glory." These words, if uttered by our Lord, should be found in the old Greek MSS. But they are not found therein. They are, therefore, to be rejected as additions made by people centuries after Matthew's Gospel was written These words were introduced when the faith of the Church respecting the Kingdom of Messiah was changed or changing from what it was originally.

All through the New Testament the second coming of Christ in power and glory to establish His Kingdom and to glorify the Church, His Bride, is set for the end of this Gospel Age. But as the time grew long a change of sentiment came into the Church. It became popular and rich. Its bishops were respected. Finally the theory prevailed that God did not intend to delay the establishment of the Kingdom until the second coming of Christ. but did intend to establish it in the hands of the Church during this Age and to use the Church for the conquering of the world and the fulfilling of all the promises of the past.

In line with this the most prominent bishop of the time was recognized as Divinely appointed to represent Christ in the world and to reign over the nations in his stead and to bring about the Messianic reign, etc. This was the Bishop of Rome, who subsequently was styled the Pope and who claimed and was accorded the honorable title, "Vice-gerent of the Son of God." It is said that the equivalent of this title is worn to this day by the Pope on his

"Thy Kingdom Come on Earth." The Lord's prayer was already in the Scriptures, and was known to many. It could not be eliminated. But some zealous person, fully believing that God's Kingdom had come, felt justified in amending the prayer to correspond o what he supposed were the facts. Hence the prayer which begins, "Thy Kingdom come," is made to end by saying. "Thy Kingdom has come in its glory and power."

How glad we are to see the Truth on this subject; that the Kingdom of God's dear Son has not yet been set up in any sense of the word-that it is still It cannot be set up until this Gospel Age ends and the "elect" saintfew of every nation, Jew and Gentile, shall be changed from earthly to heavenly nature by the First Resurrection, which will qualify them to be kings and priests unto God and unto Christ and to reign with Him a thousand years (Revelation xx, 6).

It is well that all Bible students should mark this "fly" and extract it from the Precious Ointment and notice how much sweeter and fresher the Lord's prayer is to them forever.

"Oh, What a Whopper!" Who cannot sympathize with the great infidel. Thomas Paine, who when reading the last verse of St. John's Gospel, exclaimed, "Oh, what a whop It reads, "And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one. I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written" (John xx1, 25).

Surely anyone of reasoning mind should see the absurdity of such a statement. Surely all Christian minis ters should have informed the Lord's sheep under their care respecting what is and what is not the Word of God. the Bible, as it was recognized by the Apostolic Church and written down in the original Greek MSS. Why any Christian minister should assail me because I endeavor to do for the peo ple what he has neglected to do l cannot understand. I must leave it to the Lord to judge between us.

I reent Higher Criticism and accept the Word of God in full. I reject noth ing because of my own or other men's surmises, but merely go by the facts. If the oldest Greek MSS. do not contain certain passages of Scripture, how could they get into later MSS. except as spurious additions?
